How do you get paid?

Insurance

We do not charge fees directly to our clients. Instead, we are remunerated directly by the insurance provider with:

- An initial commission – a percentage of the value of your insurance premiums (when a policy is accepted). These could range from 0-230%.
- An ongoing commission – a percentage of the value of your premiums, paid annually and usually calculated on the renewal of insurance products. These could range from 0-20%.

Fees and Charges

If you purchase an insurance product through us and cancel it within 24 months and the product provider requires us to payback the commission we received, then we reserve the right to charge you a cancellation fee equivalent to a reasonable value of the work we have performed in providing that advice.

Lending

- An initial commission – a percentage of the value of your loan amount (when a policy is accepted). These could range from 0.45 - 1.85%.
- An ongoing commission – a percentage of the value of your loan, paid annually and usually calculated on the renewal of the loan. These could range from 0 - .25%.

Conflicts of interest or other incentives

We are here for our clients and to advise you as best we can. Your interests are our priority although we do have business relationships with product providers also.

From time to time our product providers assist us with funding so we can bring our advisers together for conferences and professional development training.

How we manage any conflicts of interest

To ensure our advisers prioritise our clients' interests:

- We follow an advice process that ensures our recommendations are made appropriately, based on clients' goals and circumstances.
- All our advisers undergo annual training about how to manage conflicts of interest.
- We maintain registers of conflicts of interests and the gifts and incentives we receive. These registers are monitored regularly, and additional training is provided as required.
- We undertake an annual independent Compliance Assurance Review.
